

Questions - Trefoil

What do you think about love we don't know what you mean Sometimes I feel its contracts are shady so selfish what do you think about the lovers in the park so depend are you just feeling tired when it's getting dark Sometimes I feel my doubts are destroying tell me why Otherwise I like their task which is nothing but defending what do you mean What's the way to feel love how could i think that there are enough words to tell What's the way to feel love how could i that think there are enough words to tell

But everyone is talking of it's too nice to be hidden how could they be so sure with no definition of love do you think that your feelings are a number of love you can count and result will be a number At least what anyone must feel that must be different as you and me if I tell I love you babe, please know me just sufficient right to see That's my way to feel love everyone must find to know himself
That's my way to feel love everyone must find to know himself

There are always in your life so silly questions ask them freely in your friends direction friendship is the answer of all your questions

What do you think about time watch the shore, watch the river what do you think of the welfare politicians just questions don't you think that sometimes we've the same ones
just questions in a way we are ignorants as young sons
When you got questions believe that you are living we've got some
If there are just answers how could there be ambitions we've got some
To know the feeling of love what, where, when, who, how long, however
To know the feeling of love what, where, when, who, how long, however

*There are always in your life so silly questions
ask them freely in your friends direction
friendship is the answer of all your questions*

What do you think about time watch the shore, watch the river
what do you think of the welfare politicians just questions don't you think that sometimes we've the same ones
just questions in a way we are ignorants as young sons
When you got questions believe that you are living we've got some
If there are just answers how could there be ambitions we've got some
To know the feeling of love what, where, when, who, how long, however
To know the feeling of love what, where, when, who, how long, however

What do you think about time watch the shore, watch the river
what do you think of the welfare politicians just questions don't you think that sometimes we've the same ones
just questions in a way we are ignorants as young sons
When you got questions believe that you are living we've got some
If there are just answers how could there be ambitions we've got some
To know the feeling of love what, where, when, who, how long, however
To know the feeling of love what, where, when, who, how long, however what, where, when, who, how long, however